ARRIVAL OF ST. NICHOLAS ACCOMPANIED BY ST. BARBORA
A new Jáchymov tradition that welcomes the winter season at the spa. Part of the program will be lighting of the Christmas tree in front of the spa centre Agricola.
The basis of Jáchymov treatment are baths in thermal mineral radon water appropriately combined with the latest methods of physical therapy and vocational rehabilitation, which together support and help recover lost or impaired organ function.

Spa treatment is supervised according to an individual treatment program prescribed by a physician. Based on an initial examination, your physician will prescribe the best treatments using radon baths and rehabilitation. Spa treatment respects the nature of the disease, individual differences and the degree of disability. Treatment is combined of modern diagnostic and therapeutic equipment and professional staff, who are carefully trained, have long experience and are sensitive to all patients.

For maximum effect of spa treatment physicians recommend to spend at the spa two weeks twice a year, or three weeks and some diagnoses four weeks once a year. To start the healing effects of radon therapy a minimum of 10 radon baths is required.

Subjective relief and clinical signs of improving of health of the patient is picking over the first 2 weeks of balneo therapy and going on for further 4-6 weeks after cessation of treatment. Then, the majority of patients are evidently stabilized in their condition for an average of 8 to 10 months after treatment. Radon therapy is very gentle and does not burden the organism.

The minimum interval between the 21-day treatment stays with radon bath is 10 months. For shorter stays (14 nights) it is possible to repeat the treatment every 6 months.

Treatment is perfectly complemented by the excellent climatic conditions. Spa walks and hikes through the nearby picturesque Ore mountain nature helps to your recovery and getting new energy.

BRACHYRADIUM THERAPY - A UNIQUE JÁCHYMOV TREATMENT METHOD

Nowadays is radiation associated especially with radiotherapy of malignant tumours, which lies in the destruction of malignant cells with as little damage to one's health as possible. It were the oncologists who came to an astonishing fact. If the patient is irradiated with cancer high dose of radiation, not only it destroys cancer cells, but also diminishes the severe pain that tumour induces. When using a significantly lower dose of radiation, it does not destroy any cells but painkilling effect persists for several months. On these radon balneo therapy and brachyradium therapy is built.

Brachyradium therapy is more than a hundred years old cure that helps to many people soothe the pain, to which available drugs either do not work or clients cannot use them for their frequent side effects. In the world unique treatment method, used only in Jáchymov spa brachyradium therapy also called ‘Jáchymov Boxes’, helps to relieve chronic musculoskeletal pain. This is radiotherapists controlled application of gamma rays to the affected areas in especially painful conditions. The source of the precisely calculated minimum analgesic and anti-inflammatory doses of radiation is radioactive salt in tubes which are closed in a carrier - radioforu. It is inserted by a technical device into a carrier disposed locally onto the affected area. The box with the applicator is adapted so the emitter is not attached directly to the skin, but it is about 2 cm distanced. This prevents damage to the skin. If indicated it is applied once per stay for 6 hours in a special bed ward.
Radon, namely 222 radon isotope, is chemically inert gas that rises in the Ore Mountains depths and dissolves in underground springs. It is a source of soft ionizing alpha radiation. Thus enriched water pumped from the mine Svornost into Jáchymov spa in their spa-facilities. During radon bath the body surface area is exposed to the energy shower of radon alpha particles. And so starts the chain of physiological responses that helps to regenerate cells, accelerate healing and suppress inflammatory processes.

Can radon be beneficial for our body?
Living organisms on Earth evolved in conditions of ionizing radiation, at the birth of life there was much higher radioactivity to the one exhibited in natural environment today. A certain amount of radioactivity was for the development of life necessary for normal development as it still is nowadays. Our cells had to create their own repair mechanisms that maintain internal balance and prevent irreversible damage.

Under normal metabolic processes changes will also occur at the cellular genetic information, but these are repaired immediately by its reparatory process. The capacity of these repair processes are not normally used at a 100\%. The action of alpha rays activates as much of the capacity, which is under normal circumstances “asleep” and the cell starts to massively correct the mistakes which is caused by small doses of radiation. Together with that corrects errors that were caused by inflammation.

Many researches state that:
- Low doses of radiation in the form of radon cause a short term irritation in an organism, which stimulates cells and organs.
- Regenerative capacity of cells for some genetic disorders is improved by alpha radiation.
- Radon and its subsequent products are during a single treatment saturated in adipose tissue and in the central nervous system. This results in increased production of hormones. The effect of pain relief of one radon treatment is connected to the flooding of endorphins (a pain relieving substances in the body).
- The immune system is positively influenced. Patients with Ankylosing spondylitis and degenerative diseases of joints have by radon therapy normalized initially decreased activity of defensive cells.
- Production of radical scavengers is increased. They destroy free radicals (adverse metabolic products, which amongst other things play a vital role in rheumatic processes).

How is the Radon Therapy done in the Jáchymov spa?
In Jáchymov it is done using radon baths. 10-24 baths are applied. Mineral water containing radon is filled into special hydrotherapy tub from the bottom. This method is most effective therapeutic use of radon, which would disappear during a classical way of water fill before it would hit the water surface. In water at 35 -37 °C with a therapeutically ideal radon concentration of 4 - 5 kBq/ liter, client rests for 15 to 20 minutes. Thus, the rare gas gets through the skin into the body and can be simultaneously inhaled. Then the client spends the same length of time lying wrapped in a warm blanket and sheets on the bed.

Why can’t I attend less than 10 radon baths in the water?
So your body could respond to treatment and start the regenerative processes, it is necessary to complete at least ten baths. After the last bath the regeneration does not end, but continues another four to six weeks. And for how long will the gained energy help to suppress the pain? To someone even longer than 8 months. In most cases, the consumption of analgesics or other drugs significantly decreases.

Is the medical therapy with radon water safe?
You don’t need to be scared of radon water treatment. Based on the measurements of the State Office for Nuclear Safety, the estimate upper dose received can be measured. During the longest cure (24 bath for 20 min.), client receives a dose of max. 0.02 mSv. Which is a similar dose received during an x-ray of the chest while standing.

Jáchymov Spa joint-stock company is certifyed by the State Office for Nuclear Safety on the implementation of this treatment and measures concerning absolute safety of both patient and staff. Part of the Jáchymov spa is also a dosimetric laboratory assigned with overseeing the prescribed procedures when drawing radon water as well as the subsequent application of radon baths in spa facilities. The radon content in the water and in the air is regularly and thoroughly monitored and checked. Every client is on their arrival to the hotel spa completely examined clinically and laboratory.

In which disease is radon therapy indicated?
Based on experience with radon treatment documented for more than 100 years, syndromes of diseases in which radon therapy proved very effective were determined.

These chronic diseases radon cannot cure, but it can significantly contribute to mitigating the problems. For the permanent improvement of the quality of life of patients, the treatment should be repeated every year or every two to three years.

For whom is not radon therapy suitable?
- patients with any acute disease - infection, unstabilized arterial hypertension, cardiac or breathing difficulties, unstable diabetes, untreated thyroid hyper function, etc.
- Pregnant women and nursing mothers
- Children and teenagers under 18 years of age
- patients with active malignant tumour or two years after surgery or other cancer therapy, unless oncologist agreed to radon therapy
- Patients suffering from incontinence (except for stress incontinence)

Are radon therapy achievements scientifically documented?
It is backed up by a number of studies. Recent multicenter blind randomized study by Dr. Franke from German Bad Elster from 2013 can be mentioned. The results showed significant pain relief for patients with osteoarthritis of the weight-bearing joints after the treatment. For rheumatic inflammatory diseases has been achieved a significant reduction in pain with a long duration.

SPA LUHAČOVICE
One of the most beautiful spas...

Spa Luhačovice is the fourth largest spa in the Czech Republic. Luhačovice differs from other spas in the strength of natural healing springs and the beauty of its surroundings. Each year it becomes a popular destination for thousands of Czech and foreign visitors.

Architectonically distinctive buildings and almost twenty-hectare spa park form together the original character of Luhačovice. Green vegetation harmonizes with the unique architecture of the town. Together they complete the singular atmosphere of Luhačovice.

Many spa buildings were constructed in the style of Dušan Jurkovič, a Slovak Folk Art Nouveau architect. A wonderful example of the architect’s art is our exclusive spa hotel Jurkovičův dům*.

Luhačovice is a wonderful place. Unique natural healing springs rank Luhačovice among the top healing spas in whole Europe. Thanks to many years of the spa therapy, Luhačovice has become a very popular destination.

Luhačovice will impress you in all seasons. Come and enjoy it!
